President Message

It gives me a great pleasure to be part of this annual fund raising event: Natha Vinotham 2015.

This year, with the opening of the new hostel at Hartley College, we have undertaken the long term commitment of supporting needy students from the breadth and width of the Island. We ensure that these students are accommodated in the hostel so that they have adequate means to further their education. We wanted to lift and live the Hartley pride "Fiat Lux" through the spreading of light of education to all who deserved better quality and means of education. As such, the majority of the fund generated through this event will go directly towards the hostel project. In addition, we have also started an ongoing bursary program to support underprivileged students. Currently sixteen students are being benefited through this project.

While helping our school in Sri Lanka, we also feel that we have to encourage local artists and younger generation in the UK by giving them a platform to promote and showcase our rich plethora of cultural arts. Hence, this year we are proud to portray this unique production at Natha Vinotham 2015.

My sincere gratitude is extended to all the committee members of HCPPA (UK) for their hard work and commitment in organising this event. I know how much time and energy this project demanded, and I deeply appreciate all their efforts to make this event a great success.

As ever, we have received steadfast support from all of you to make this event successful and memorable in HCPPA (UK)'s history. As such, I take this opportunity to thank you all for the generosity and support and sincerely hope that you will continue to support us in all our endeavours.

I wish you all the best for the success of Natha Vinotham 2015 and all the future events.

"Natyakalasikhamani" Shrimathy Nandini Suthahar

Founder Kalaimanram UK, www.kalaimanram.net

Nandini's creativity as a dancer and choreographer includes expansion of the technique through the use of the entire body with leaps and extension of legs and fast footwork for ramification of rhythm.

Her performance in front of Arch Bishop of Canterbury was well appreciated during his visit to Sri Lanka. The main role she took as Kaarakaal Amaiya in "Theivathai" dance drama for the World Hindu Conference held in Sri Lanka was choreographed by her mother "Kalabhooshanam" Shrimathy Thiripurasundari Yoganantham took Nandini to another level.

After having her arangetram under her mother she had further training under Padmashri Vazhuvoor Samaraj in Chennai, India.

She did away with Nattuvangam, but retained Sollukattu (syllables of spoken rhythm) to suit the movements and used her brother Yadavan to show his vocal skills to highlight the highs and lows in the Vazhuvoor style of Bharathanatyam since 2002. Nandini has conducted Arangetrams, Trained students for the OEFL examinations and produced variety of shows in the UK.

Vazhuvoor Style

The versatility of the Vazhuvoor style Bharathanatyam with the rendition of tongue twisting jathis attracted the Indian film Industry in the late 50s and early 60s. Several dance pieces were created by Padmashri Vazhuvoor Ramiapillai who was the guru of Nandini's mother Thiripurasundari Yoganantham, the trio sisters Lalitha, Padmini, Rahini and the legendary Dr. Padma Subramaiyam.

Message from the Principal of Hartley College

It gives me great joy to send this message to the U.K. Branch of the HCPPA on the occasion of their "Fund Raising Program for Hartley Projects" in the name of "Nathavinotham-2015" to be held on the 18th of April 2015.

I want to express my immense gratitude that fills my heart to see U.K. Branch of the HCPPA's absolute commitment to the wellbeing of their alma-mater. The U.K. Branch right from the beginning has been endeavoring hard to contribute funds raised through various methods for the development of both curricular and co-curricular activities of the college.

Apart from the contributions for the development of the infra-structure of the college, the U.K. Branch of the HCPPA has been awarding scholarships and prizes to the needy and deserving students of Hartley College.

A recent contribution was the presentation of equipment for promotion of gymnastics among the students of Hartley for enhancement of their physical fitness. Besides, the college is looking out for funds to have the newly built hostel managed smoothly and effectively for which we hope the U.K. Branch of the HCPPA will give a helping hand in the near future.

I wish success for the "Nathavinotham-2015" whole heartedly.
